

International Collegiate Programming Contest

-  Organized by the Association for Computing Machinery (ACM)
 -  2-tiered process (Regionals followed by World Finals)
 -  2009-2010 numbers
 - 82 countries
 - 1,800+ universities
 - 7,000+ teams
 - 100 teams advancing to World Finals
-

Contest Format

-  Three students per team
-  One computer per team
-  Typically 6-10 problems
-  Five hours
-  Team solving the most problems wins (penalty point system in case of ties)

International Collegiate Programming Contest

 UCF has competed the last 28 years

 Southeast Regional Contest

First Place – 14 times

Second Place – 8 times

Third Place – 6 times

 World Contest Finals

Second Place

Fourth Place

Fifth Place

Seventh Place

UCF Programming Team

 How do I get on the team?

 Why should I get on the team?

knowledge/learn

fun

fortune

 Misconceptions

It's too early to try

I won't make it

I won't solve any problem
